

The Mediterranean climate may be one of the best things Barcelona has to offer, but besides the clear and bright sky that everybody loves, this city is a wonderful mix of historical landmarks and a place that contains treasures of incalculable value.

We have taken inspiration from this charming city to share the 5 most enriching places in
Barcelona for culture lovers

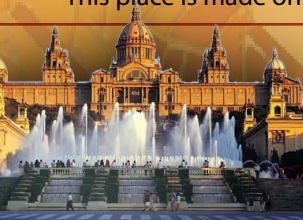

The Palau de la Música Catalana

Architectural jewel of Catalan Art Nouveau. Did you know that this Concert Auditorium is one of the most distinctive in the world?

Casa Batlló

Two words: Modernisme and Art Nouveau. The most emblematic work of the brilliant Gaudí. This place is made original, fantastical and full of imagination.

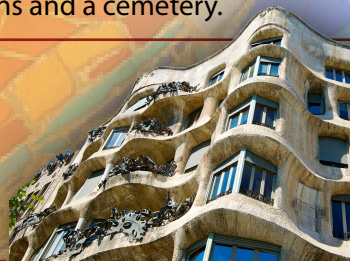

Montjuïc Hill

This cultural place is home to museums such as Fundació Miró, the Museu d'Arqueologia, the Museu Etnològic, olympic and sport museum; botanical gardens and a cemetery.

Casa Milà

Popularly known as La Pedrera, is a modernist building designed by Gaudí. For its uniqueness, artistic and heritage value belongs to UNESCO World Heritage List

Mercat del Born

One of the most important buildings in Barcelona and the largest covered square in all of Europe. Marked the start of Modernisme. Pure testimony to the great Barcelona of 1700
