

Malaga is located in the south of the Iberian Peninsula.

This place has become a true city of museums, most of them concentrated in the historic quarter. Being the 5^o most populated city in Spain, Malaga is emerging as a port town rich in history and art.

Take a look at the

Top 5 places in Malaga to appreciate culture

Malaga Cathedral

(Our Lady of Incarnation) It's not only a religious building but a landmark, a national landmark, a milestone along the road and a witness to many events.

Historic Center

About one thousand buildings built during the 19th century when Malaga was one of the most prosperous cities in Spain.

Museo Picasso Malaga

A center for cultural and social promotion, which people will visit not only to enjoy its holdings, but also to participate in educational activities and benefit from cultural services.

Teatro Romano

The oldest monument in Malaga City. It is situated in the cultural heart of Malaga and the only remaining Roman ruins in Andalucía after centuries of warfare, and construction.

Alcazaba de Malaga

This fortress palace, whose name in Arabic means citadel is visited because of its history and beauty. With the Roman Theatre, this special corner offers the chance to observe Roman, Arab and Renaissance culture.

HTBIS
HOW TO BUY IN SPAIN.COM

Sources:
Malagaturismo.com | Image: Olaf Tauch, wikimedia.
TripAdvisor.com | Image: Rufus46, wikimedia.
Museopicassomalaga.org | Image: Lecco, wikimedia.
Andalucia.com | Image: Draxus, wikimedia.
Malagaturismo.com | Image: NaturalEarth, wikimedia.